CONNECT & CARE
In a world where bullying is a reality, transform your school culture to one where students stand and speak for each other every day - all based on a foundation of respect.

SOAR STUDENT SUCCESS
Imagine how easier students who feel respected are able to focus, to be productive, and prioritize for themselves.

EMPOWER from WITHIN
Students who understand how to live a life of respect are more likely to make healthier choices going forward. They are more empowered to stand for themselves, especially in moments of peer pressure.

LIFE LONG SKILLS
Learning how to lead with respect for yourself and others is a skill every student can thrive with for the rest of their lives.

"Respect is a practice - not a theory. How is your practice going?"

Leslie Pranger:

"Only Mike Domitrz, has the unique ability to champion and represent the essence of RESPECT in every aspect of his presentation to anyone in the audience. Mike truly walks the walk, he is RESPECT, it is the core of who he is and therefore the way he works with people prior to an engagement, during or afterward, RESPECT is the central aura. Mike does not talk about RESPECT like it is something over there, it's not a concept for Mike, it is Mike. RESPECT for Mike is like oxygen for the average person."
