As the Founder of The Center for Respect and as a critically-acclaimed author, this subject matter expert conducts interactive, skills based trainings with thousands of our military members on installations around the world each year – for groups as small as 10 to as large as 3,000.

His expertise and his mission is focused on creating a cultural transformation for addressing healthy sexuality, consent, respect, bystander intervention and opening the door for sexual assault survivors to come forward.

Please give a warm welcome to . . .

Mike “Dom ish” (pronounced "Amish" with a "D" as d-amish).
