

Create a Culture of Respect Before It's Too Late

Mike Domitrz works with the military to reduce sexual assault and support survivors. We shift the paradigm for your troops from a Don't Perspective to a How To – the Respectful Way!

"The one sexual assault briefing that RAISES THE MORALE of our active duty while giving them 'How To' skills they want to implement."

From large keynotes to small group trainings.

The Can I Kiss You? training instills 3 key messages:

Asking First to ensure consent through verbal communication.

Bystander Intervention to STOP someone from taking advantage of an intoxicated person at clubs and/or parties.

Opening a Door for sexual assault survivors to come forward and be properly supported.

Single, Committed, and MARRIED Adults love Safer Choices

- 👁️ Sexual discussions cover all levels of relationships: from hook-ups to decades-long marriages.
- 👁️ From the "Back Door Bump" to "The Touch," adults of all ages gain valuable skills for building and maintaining healthy, respectful relationships, which greatly reduce the chance of sexual violence.
- 👁️ After originally being mandated to attend, many active-duty voluntarily and enthusiastically bring their spouses and partners to a later session to reinforce the training while having fun as a couple.

The Mission Is Transformation Training for Leaders

In this briefing specific for leaders, Mike Domitrz shares skills and strategies for helping leaders transform the culture to one founded in respect - from discussing sexual violence to bystander intervention to the language military members use in every day conversation.

"I can assure you that we will share the great experience we've had here at Shaw with my fellow wing commanders. They would all benefit from the experience."

All inclusive educational programming

Protect your entire installation! In addition to active duty personnel, empower every dependent and civilian to make safer, more helpful choices, including students going to the DoDEA schools.

School Programs (6th - 12th Grades) and Parents

DoDEA Schools are grateful every time leadership works with them to help their middle school and high school students attend Mike's "Safer Choices" program for making safer choices – including helping friends in danger. Parents love the customized "Help, My Teen is Dating!" session just for them that Mike offers.

"I walked away from your presentation feeling like a new person as I believe this will indeed improve the way I not only handle my personal relationship, but how I deal with my children regarding their safety and security."
