

TABLE OF CONTENTS for INTRODUCTIONS:

ONSITE EVENTS:

Onsite “Mission Is Transformation” Training	p2
Onsite “Keys to Engagement” Training	p3
Onsite “Can I Kiss You?” Training	p4
Onsite “RESPECT in the Workplace” Program	p5
Onsite K12 Student Program	p6
Onsite Parent Program	p7

LIVE VIRTUAL EVENTS:

Live Virtual “Mission Is Transformation” Training	p8
Live Virtual “Keys to Engagement” Training	p9
Live Virtual “Can I Kiss You?” Training	p10
Live Virtual “RESPECT in the Workplace” Program	p11
Live Virtual K12 Student Program	p12
Live Virtual Parent Program	p13

Introduction for ONSITE “The MISSION is Transformation” Training

“Dom ish” is pronounced like the “Amish” culture with a “D” in front of it.

Listen to the pronunciation at: <https://vimeo.com/201285280>

As the Founder of The Center for Respect and as a critically-acclaimed author, our next subject matter expert conducts interactive, skills-based trainings with thousands of our military members on installations around the world each year – for groups as small as 10 to as large as 2,000.

You may have seen him quoted in the Wall Street Journal or in Forbes or maybe you’ve seen him on Dateline NBC as a guest expert. In 2022, he was inducted into the National Speakers Association’s Hall of Fame.

His mission is focused on creating a cultural transformation for addressing healthy sexuality, consent, respect, bystander intervention and opening the door for sexual assault survivors to come forward.

Please give a warm welcome to Mike “Dom ish” (pronounced "Amish" with a "D" as d-amish).

Listen to the pronunciation at: <https://vimeo.com/201285280>

Introduction for ONSITE “The Keys to ENGAGEMENT” Training

“Dom ish” is pronounced like the “Amish” culture with a “D” in front of it.

Listen to the pronunciation at: <https://vimeo.com/201285280>

As the Founder of The Center for Respect and as a critically-acclaimed author, this subject matter expert conducts interactive, skills-based trainings with thousands of our military members on installations around the world each year – for groups as small as 10 to as large as 2,000.

His expertise and his mission include being praised for his interactive and inclusive approach to engaging people of all genders, sexual orientation, relationship status (single AND married), ages, ranks, cultures, and backgrounds. In 2022, he was inducted into the National Speakers Association’s Hall of Fame.

Ask LOTS of questions. This session is for YOU to get what you need to best engage the groups you conduct trainings for. Please give a warm welcome to . . .

Mike “Dom ish” (pronounced "Amish" with a "D" as d-amish).

Listen to the pronunciation at: <https://vimeo.com/201285280>

Introduction for ONSITE “Can I Kiss You?” with Mike “Dom ish”

pronounced like the “Amish” culture with a “D” in front of it.

Listen to the pronunciation at: <https://vimeo.com/201285280>

Before we get started, please raise your right hand. Now with that hand, grab your cell phone . . . and TURN IT ON TO VIBRATE.

Today's show will involve the discussion of intimacy and sexual decision-making. While lots of the show will be fun, there will also be serious matters discussed, including addressing sexual assault. For this reason, if any part of the program makes you uncomfortable, SARCs and VAs will be available at the back of the room to talk with at any time during the show. Now, lets get started . . .

Get Ready!! When it comes to intimacy and getting what you want, you are about to engage in a fun conversation we typically do not have in the military.

In today's training, there will be NO STATISTICS. Our special guest travels the world speaking with TENS OF THOUSANDS of people each year and reaching millions more via TV, Radio, and Media appearances – including being on Dateline NBC. You may have seen him quoted in The Wall Street Journal or in Forbes. In 2022, he was inducted into the National Speakers Association's Hall of Fame.

On military installations across the globe, he is one of the most popular speakers. Prepare to get involved by standing up and giving a warm & WILD welcome to . . .

Mike “Dom ish” (pronounced "Amish" with a "D" as d-amish).

Listen to the pronunciation at: <https://vimeo.com/201285>

INTRODUCTION FORLIVE ONSITE SESSION on RESPECT in the WORKPLACE

with Mike “Dom ish”. Pronounced like the “Amish” culture with a “D” in front of it.

Listen to the pronunciation at: <https://vimeo.com/201285280>

Before we get started, please raise your right hand. Now with that hand, grab your cell phone . . . and turn it to VIBRATE – so that we can start the program.

You may have read one of his quotes in major publications such as the Wall Street Journal or Forbes or maybe you’ve seen him as a featured expert on "Dateline NBC."

As the Founder of The Center for Respect, an author, and a Hall-of-Fame speaker, each year, he speaks across globe helping organization create a culture of RESPECT. The country’s top educational institutions, the US Military and organizations of all sizes have been seeking Mike’s expertise for the past 2 decades.

Getting ready. He is high energy and loves to engage audiences. Let’s welcome. Mike Dom Ish

Mike “Dom ish”. (pronounced "Amish" with a "D" as d-amish).

Listen to the pronunciation at: <https://vimeo.com/201285280>

INTRODUCTION FOR ONSITE K12 STUDENT PROGRAMSIntroduction for Mike “Dom ish”

pronounced like the “Amish” culture with a “D” in front of it.

Listen to the pronunciation at: <https://vimeo.com/201285280>

Before we get started, please raise your right hand. Now with that hand, grab your cell phone . . . and turn it to vibrate – so that we can start the program.

All OTHER electronics must be turned off – including computers. Thank you.

Today's program will involve the discussion of intimacy and relationships. While lots of the program will be fun, there will also be serious matters discussed, including addressing sexual assault. For this reason, if any part of the program makes you uncomfortable, counselors will be available at the back of the room to talk with at any time during the program. Now, lets get started . . .

Get Ready!! When it comes to dating in high school (or middle school – if speaking to middle school students), do you have friends who could use some help? Then today is for you.

As the Founder of The Center for Respect, our guest speaker has produced 2 critically acclaimed books, a FUN T-shirt line, and spoken on 5 continents to TENS OF THOUSANDS of people EACH YEAR. On TV & Radio, he has appeared in over 40 shows – including being a special guest expert on “Dateline NBC.” In 2022, he was inducted into the National Speakers Association’s Hall of Fame.

Our guest loves traveling the country speaking with students! Prepare to get involved by standing up and giving a warm & WILD welcome to

. . . Mike “Dom ish”

(Pronounced "Amish" with a "D" as d-amish).

Listen to the pronunciation at: <https://vimeo.com/201285280>

INTRODUCTION FOR ONSITE PARENT PROGRAMIntroduction for Mike “Dom ish”

Pronounced like the “Amish” culture with a “D” in front of it.

Listen to the pronunciation at: <https://vimeo.com/201285280>

Before we get started, please raise your right hand. Now with that hand, grab your cell phone . . . and turn it to VIBRATE – so that we can start the program. This performance is based on the book “Can I Kiss You?” and so it is a copyright protected show. Thank you.

How did you learn about dating, boundaries, and intimacy? Did most of us receive specific instructions or did we learn as we go? How often were those moments uncomfortable or even scary? How about your teen? When will your son or daughter engage in sexual activity: kissing, fondling, oral sex, or intercourse? Will it be on his or her terms?

As the Founder of The Center for Respect and as a critically-acclaimed author, our guest has produced 2 critically-acclaimed books and spoken on 5 continents – to tens of thousands each YEAR. You may have seen him quoted in Forbes or The Wall Street Journal. Maybe you’ve seen him as a guest expert on Dateline NBC’s “My Kid Would Never Do That” Series. In 2022, he was inducted into the National Speakers Association’s Hall of Fame.

His award-winning DVD and book set “Help! My Teen is Dating. Real Solutions to Tough Conversations” is hailed by parents and educators as a “Must Have.”

We are honored to have him here with us today. Prepare to get involved by giving a warm & ENERGETIC welcome to . . .

Mike “Dom ish”. (pronounced "Amish" with a "D" as d-amish).

Listen to the pronunciation at: <https://vimeo.com/201285280>

Introduction for LIVE VIRTUAL “The MISSION is Transformation” Training

“Dom ish” is pronounced like the “Amish” culture with a “D” in front of it.

Listen to the pronunciation at: <https://vimeo.com/201285280>

As the Founder of The Center for Respect and as a critically-acclaimed author, our next subject matter expert conducts interactive, skills-based trainings with thousands of our military members on installations around the world each year – for groups as small as 10 to as large as 2,000.

You may have seen him quoted in the Wall Street Journal or in Forbes or maybe you’ve seen him on Dateline NBC as a guest expert. In 2022, he was inducted into the National Speakers Association’s Hall of Fame.

His mission is focused on creating a cultural transformation for addressing healthy sexuality, consent, respect, bystander intervention and opening the door for sexual assault survivors to come forward.

He is known for being interactive and high energy. Let’s start by each of us saying “Hi!” in the CHAT to him as we welcome . . . Mike “Dom ish” (pronounced "Amish" with a "D" as d-amish).

Listen to the pronunciation at: <https://vimeo.com/201285280>

Introduction for Live Virtual “Keys to ENGAGEMENT” Training

“Dom ish” is pronounced like the “Amish” culture with a “D” in front of it.

Listen to the pronunciation at: <https://vimeo.com/201285280>

As the Founder of The Center for Respect, a Hall of Fame Speaker, and as a critically-acclaimed author, this subject matter expert conducts interactive, skills-based trainings with thousands of our military members on installations around the world each year – for groups as small as 10 to as large as 2,000.

His expertise and his mission include being praised for his interactive and inclusive approach to engaging people of all genders, sexual orientation, relationship status (single AND married), ages, ranks, cultures, and backgrounds on topics such as healthy relationships, consent, bystander intervention, and helping support survivors.

Ask LOTS of questions. This session is for YOU to get what you need to best engage the groups you conduct trainings for. Let’s start by each of us saying, “Hi!” to him in the Chat as we welcome...

Mike “Dom ish” (pronounced "Amish" with a "D" as d-amish).

Listen to the pronunciation at: <https://vimeo.com/201285280>

Introduction for LIVE VIRTUAL “Can I Kiss You?” Training

pronounced like the “Amish” culture with a “D” in front of it.

Listen to the pronunciation at: <https://vimeo.com/201285280>

Today's show will involve the discussion of intimacy and relationships. While lots of the show will be fun, there will also be serious matters discussed, including addressing sexual assault. For this reason, if any part of the program makes you uncomfortable, SARC's and VAs will be available in the following Zoom Room at _____ (if you are NOT providing a Zoom Room with Counselors, then please say, “For this reason, please know parts of this program could be difficult for some”).

Now, let's get started . . .

Get Ready!! When it comes to intimacy and getting what you want, you are about to engage in a fun conversation we typically do not have in the military.

In today's training, there will be NO STATISTICS. Our special guest travels the world speaking with TENS OF THOUSANDS of people each year and reaching millions more via TV, Radio, and Media appearances – including being on Dateline NBC. You may have seen him quoted in The Wall Street Journal or in Forbes. In 2022, he was inducted into the National Speakers Association's Hall of Fame. On military installations across the globe, he is one of the most popular speakers. Let's get started by saying “Hi!” to him in the Chat as we welcome . . .

Mike “Dom ish” (pronounced “Amish” with a “D” as d-amish).

Listen to the pronunciation at: <https://vimeo.com/201285>

INTRODUCTION FORLIVE VIRTUAL SESSION on RESPECT in the WORKPLACE

with Mike “Dom ish”. Pronounced like the “Amish” culture with a “D” in front of it.

Listen to the pronunciation at: <https://vimeo.com/201285280>

You may have read one of his quotes in major publications such as the Wall Street Journal or Forbes or maybe you’ve seen him as a featured expert on “Dateline NBC.”

As the Founder of The Center for Respect, an author, and a Hall-of-Fame speaker, each year, he speaks across globe helping organization create a culture of RESPECT. The country’s top educational institutions, the US Military and organizations of all sizes have been seeking Mike’s expertise for the past 2 decades.

Getting ready. He is high energy and loves to engage audiences. Let’s welcome Mike Dom Ish by saying “Hi!” in the CHAT.

Mike “Dom ish”. (pronounced "Amish" with a "D" as d-amish).

Listen to the pronunciation at: <https://vimeo.com/201285280>

INTRODUCTION FOR LIVE VIRTUAL K12 STUDENT PROGRAMSIntroduction for Mike “Dom ish”

pronounced like the “Amish” culture with a “D” in front of it.

Listen to the pronunciation at: <https://vimeo.com/201285280>

Today's program will involve the discussion of intimacy and relationships. While lots of the program will be fun, there will also be serious matters discussed, including addressing sexual assault. For this reason, if any part of the program makes you uncomfortable, Counselors will be available at the back of the room to talk with at any time during the program.

Now, let's get started . . .

Get Ready!! When it comes to dating in high school (or middle school – if speaking to middle school students), do you have friends who could use some help? Then today is for you.

As the Founder of The Center for Respect, our guest speaker has produced 2 critically acclaimed books, a FUN T-shirt line, and spoken on 5 continents to TENS OF THOUSANDS of people EACH YEAR. On TV & Radio, he has appeared in over 40 shows – including being a special guest expert on “Dateline NBC.” In 2022, he was inducted into the National Speakers Association’s Hall of Fame.

Our guest loves traveling the country speaking with students! Let's get started by saying “Hi!” to him in the CHAT as we welcome

. . . Mike “Dom ish”

(Pronounced "Amish" with a "D" as d-amish).

Listen to the pronunciation at: <https://vimeo.com/201285280>

INTRODUCTION FOR LIVE VIRTUAL PARENT PROGRAMIntroduction for Mike “Dom ish”

Pronounced like the “Amish” culture with a “D” in front of it.

Listen to the pronunciation at: <https://vimeo.com/201285280>

How did you learn about dating, boundaries, and intimacy? Did most of us receive specific instructions or did we learn as we go? How often were those moments uncomfortable or even scary? How about your teen? When will your son or daughter engage in sexual activity: kissing, fondling, oral sex, or intercourse? Will it be on his or her terms?

As the Founder of The Center for Respect and as an award-winning author, our guest has produced 2 critically-acclaimed books and spoken on 4 continents – to tens of thousands each YEAR. You may have seen him quoted in Forbes or The Wall Street Journal. Maybe you’ve seen him as a guest expert on Dateline NBC’s “My Kid Would Never Do That” Series. In 2022, he was inducted into the National Speakers Association’s Hall of Fame.

His award-winning DVD and book set “Help! My Teen is Dating. Real Solutions to Tough Conversations” is hailed by parents and educators as a “Must Have.”

We are honored to have him with us today. Let’s get started by each of us saying “Hi!” to him in the Chat as we welcome . . .

Mike “Dom ish”. (pronounced “Amish” with a “D” as d-amish).

Listen to the pronunciation at: <https://vimeo.com/201285280>