

What is included in this pdf file:

- Page 2:
Email to send to parents about the “SAFER Choices” Student Assembly.
- Page 3:
Paragraphs to send out for promoting parents to attend the Parent Program.
- Page 4:
Email to send to parents about the “Let’s Talk” Student Assembly.
- Page 5:
Sample email a school sent out (different the above ones).

PROMOTING “SAFER Choices” Student Assembly:

Dear Parent/Guardian,

At [School Name], we're committed to cultivating a culture of respect—one where every student feels seen, heard, and safe. As part of that commitment, we're honored to host Hall-of-Fame Speaker and author Mike Domitrz for his nationally acclaimed “SAFER Choices” student assembly on [DATE].

This high-impact session engages students in real-life conversations around boundaries, consent, healthy relationships, and supporting survivors. Mike delivers an honest, age-appropriate message that empowers students to make respectful choices—for themselves and others.

Taking time to address these vital topics is a decision rooted in both research and care. Schools, educators, and parents across the country consistently praise Mike's assemblies for creating meaningful, lasting impact in their student communities.

Here's what other schools have said about Mike's work:

- “I can't recall an assembly more well-received in my 29 years in education.” – High School Principal
- “Mike's ability to engage teens on these sensitive topics is unmatched.” – Dean of Students
- “The shift in student conversations after his visit was immediate and powerful.” – School Counselor

We're excited to bring this transformational experience to our students—and we're grateful for your partnership in building a safer, more respectful school culture.

PROMOTING THE PARENT PROGRAM:

OPTION #1:

☀️ How do we protect our kids from a culture where sex and sexual pressures are everywhere? In a world of constant online influences and mixed messages about intimacy, your child deserves clarity, confidence, and respect. That's exactly what Hall-of-Fame speaker Mike Domitrz delivers in his powerful session, "SAFER Choices for My Child in a Sexualized World." After attending, parents rave about the real-life strategies they gained for talking with their kids about boundaries, consent, and healthy relationships—without the awkwardness.

💬 Join us for one hour of insight, tools, and transformative guidance every family can use. Because when we lead with respect, we give our kids the skills to thrive.

💖 #ParentNight #RespectMatters #SAFERChoices #LeadWithRespect.

OPTION #2:

In a world where our kids are surrounded by sexualized messages, parents often ask, "How do I protect and prepare my child without scaring them?" That's exactly what "SAFER Choices for My Child in a Sexualized World" delivers—real-world strategies rooted in respect, not fear. Internationally recognized and Hall-of-Fame speaker Mike Domitrz engages parents with warmth, humor, and proven tools for guiding their children through tricky conversations about boundaries, consent, relationships, and online influences.

You'll leave feeling more confident, equipped, and ready to help your child make choices that honor their dignity and the dignity of others.

OPTION #3:

Why attend "SAFER Choices for My Child in a Sexualized World"?

Join us for an open, honest conversation that goes beyond the typical "talk." This program, led by Hall-of-Fame Speaker and author Mike Domitrz, equips parents with practical tools for discussing boundaries, consent, healthy relationships, sexual assault, societal influences (such as porn and nudes), and raising teens' personal standards. You'll gain new language, strategies, and insights for guiding your teen through today's complex sexual culture.

This next paragraph is optional depending on if your school wants students welcomed to the evening program or not:

While designed specifically for adults, students are welcome to join you if you're comfortable with them engaging in a more advanced, real-world discussion than they will be hearing during the day.

PROMOTING the “LET’S TALK” Student Assembly:

Let’s Talk: A Candid Conversation About Choices, Consent, and Culture

In today’s hypersexualized culture, students face intense pressure—from peers, social media, and cultural norms. “Let’s Talk” is a skills-based assembly designed to equip high school students with practical tools for making safer, healthier choices.

Through honest, engaging dialogue, students will learn how to:

- Navigate peer pressure and the push to be sexually active
- Respond to requests for nudes or sexting with confidence and clarity
- Understand the risks of combining alcohol and sexual decision-making
- Recognize the harmful impacts of porn’s unrealistic portrayals
- Establish and honor one’s boundaries (and others’)
- Build a personal standard for healthy, respectful intimacy

This is not a fear-based lecture or a list of “don’ts.” It’s a powerful, student-centered conversation that empowers teens to make choices rooted in respect—for themselves and for others.

Here’s what students say about the “Let’s Talk” Assembly:

- “Amazing and a must. To not attend is to sell yourself short.”
- “It breaks a lot of deep-rooted mindsets we had about peer pressure, consent, and sex.”
- “Eye opening—this helps you realize a lot of things you don’t think about.”
- “Life-changing.”

SAMPLE EMAIL A SCHOOL SENT OUT:

Dear Parents,

We hope you will join us for an evening with Mike Domitrz and The Center for Respect at _____ p.m. on Tuesday, March 21st in the _____.

For more than a decade, The Center for Respect has been inspiring students and families through humor and a truly unique approach to healthier dating and communication. Impactful and timely, The Center for Respect holds nothing back. As an award-winning author and the founder of The Center for Respect, Mike Domitrz works closely with students, parents, and educators across the country, discussing healthy approaches to respectful relationships.

You may have read Domitrz quoted in major publications such as The Wall Street Journal or viewed him as a featured expert on Dateline NBC's My Kid Would Never Do That series. In bringing Domitrz to campus, we hope you will gain useful skills and strategies for helping your child make safer choices around relationships, dating, substances, and consent.